Special Screening and Press Conference of “Diary of a Woman” held at NFDC Film Bazaar, Goa

Actor Marcel Schneider, director-producer Simon Aeby shared insights of “Diary of a Woman” at NFDC Film Bazaar, Goa

DINESH SINGH :

Goa, - Simon Aeby Films and Snider Films hosted a special screening and press conference for their upcoming film, Diary of a Woman, at the prestigious NFDC Film Bazaar. The event was graced by actor Marcel Schneider, director-producer Simon Aeby, and India distributor Manoj Nandwana, who addressed members of the media. The event began with the screening of Diary of a Woman at QUBE 2, providing attendees with a glimpse into the poignant and thought-provoking narrative. The film delves into the complexities of gender identity, specifically exploring the life of a man grappling with gender insecurity. Through compelling storytelling and powerful performances, the movie sheds light on emotional and societal struggles. Following the screening, a press conference and interactive session were held with Simon Aeby and Marcel Schneider. They shared insights about the making of the film, its creative journey, and the challenges faced during production. Marcel Schneider discussed the responsibility of portraying such a profound and relatable character, while Manoj Nandwana outlined the film's distribution plans in India. Simon Aeby, while addressing the media, stated, “This film is a tribute to the resilience and strength of both men and women, as it explores the nuances of gender identity around the world. Through this story, we aim to spark meaningful conversations about self-discovery, struggle, and empowerment.” The event concluded on a high note, leaving attendees eagerly anticipating the film's release and its impactful narrative. Diary of a Woman has already garnered attention for its unique perspective and promises to leave a lasting impression on audiences. The film is scheduled for release soon, marking another milestone for Simon Aeby Films and Snider Films.
