What the critics say:

Maria Pia Corbelli, President “Tierra di Siena International Film Festival

“Diary of a Woman has a rarely seen depth, a leading actor who carries the story almost single-handedly with just his eyes, his looks, and his physical tension — that is unique, and it truly impressed the jury, congratulations, what a beautiful movie.”

Riyaz Ahmed from Mti News

“Diary of a Woman is a lived experience”

“Schneiders performance is nothing but remarkable”

“unexpected, almost shocking”

“art with a deep message”

Ganesh Aaglave from Firstpost

“an empathetic exploration of the fringes of society”

“a very powerful and emotionally highly resonant story”

“a story that resonates strongly with Indian moviegoers”
